DINGS IN THE HOUSE.

VILL MR. BAYARD RETIRE?--UTAH ADMITTED TO THE UNION.

From Our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, Jan. 6, 1896.
The republican House does not ropose wasting any time while waiting for the tariff and bond bills to be sported from the Finance committee and acted upon by the Senate. It is the industrious law abiding and the are drawing a bold, clear line between the area drawing a bold, clear line between the area drawing a bold, clear line between the industrious law abiding and the shiftless, disorderly element of the shiftless, disorderly element of the race. Such meetings cannot fail to be of great benefit to our race.

'Uongress can do so, and in accorance with that policy the regular appropriation bills are to be passed as ropriation bills are to be passed as There has been a number of visitors rapidly as possible.

The pension appropriation bill will in the city during the holidays. be reported to the House this week Among the ladies are Misses Bryant It carries an appropria ion of $137,900 000 and three important amendments to the pension law. First, one providing that no pension shall be suspended on a charge of fraud until the charge shall have been adjudicated in a U S District Court, except where the alleged fraud constitutes a plain violation of statute, as in the case of the remarking of a widow. case of the re-marriage of a widow second, one providing that any claim granted under the act of 1890 shall date from the date of application, instead of from the date of adjudication as at present; third, one repealing the section of the act of 1890 which resection of the act of 1890 which requires a widow to show that she is dependent for her support on her daily labor.

It is expected that the Senate Fi-It is expected that the Senate Finance committee will report one or more bills to the Senate this week. mance committee will report one or more bills to the Senate this week, but it is not certain that it will, and the exact nature of the bill or bills which will be reported is even more uncertain, although the impression is growing among republicans that the tariff bill will be reported without amendment, just as it was passed by the House, and that it will be pushed to a vote at an early date. It is for the finance committee to decide whether the tariff or bond bill will be first reported.

It is now regarded as probable that if Mr Cleveland succeeds in making a big bond issue, he will feel independent of the revenue provided by the tariff bill and will veto that measure, if the Senate passes it, which it will almost certainly do.

Representative tlark, of Iowa, has introduced a bill providing that greenbacks shall be paid out by the Treasury shall be paid out by the total amount on hand exceeds $100, 000,000. Senator Eikins of W. Va., gave out me very interesting figures while he was speaking in favor of his resolu-tion against the disposal of bonds by private contract or in any other way than by public advertising He had searched the Treasury record and showed by the official figures that the U. S. Government had only paid about $5,500,000 in commissions to the bankers, who assisted in selling the $2,500,000 of bonds which represented the debt incurred during the late civil war, less than one half the amount made by the syndicate which took the last $62,000,000 of bonds issued by the Cleveland administration.

It is not surprising that Congress should be opposed to Mr Cleveland's reported deal for another issue of bonds through the same syndicate. her mother. She came from Law-renceville N. & I. SAMUEL BURROWS.

No surprise was caused in Congress by the publication of Ambassador Bayard's slleged intention to remain in England after he retires from office, and about the only comment heard is that if we had the right sort of administration he would not have to wait long for his retirement. The report that Bayard had been reprimanded by Secretary Oldey is not betieved here.

Utah having become a full-fiedged state is now represented in the House by its first Representative, in the person of Hon. C. E. Allen, and Delegate Cannon retires from the House to go-his friends believe to the Senate.

Representative Allen says: "I think the state will remain rejublican for a long period, because our people are decidedly in favor of a rotective system." He declined to express an opinion as to the perionality of the two senators to be elected by the Utah legislature, further than they would both be good r publicans and that one would be a Mermon-The Venezuelan Bouldary Commis-

DANVILLE LETTER.

Marriages-Damon and Pythias. DANVILLE, VA., Dec 31, '95.

A quiet marriage took place at the residence of Rev. J. L. Barksdale on Gay St., December 26th. The contracting parties were Mr. W. H. Paxton, on of our pro ninent business men and Miss Millie Lawson Bethell one of our esteemed young ladies and county school teachers. Promptly at 7:30 o'clock P. M., the bridal party entered the beautifgl parlor of kev. Barksdale. Mr. Paxton, leaning on the arm of W. W. Manns and Miss Lawson on that of Mr. H. L. Swann, the best man. After the ceremony was performed by Nev. Barksdale, the bridal party repaired to Mr. Paxton's residence on Newton St., where a heavy ladened table was arranged by Mrs. Paxton, the mother of the grocin A. Hodge and Lottie Grasty, Messrs.
H. L. Swann, J. W. Sampson and W.

"Self defence is indeed a virtue, Sole bulwark of all right" It has been alleged that I have met Mr. W. W. Browne and publicly acknowledged to him that he was right in his attack upon Rev. E. Payne, the ministry and myself; and upon my acknowledgement we (Rev. Browne and myself) shook hands, as an earnest of the settling of our difficulty.

While it is not my custom to notice rumors I must brand this one as an "unmitigated falsehood", born of dendish hate and cowardly spirit, designed to deprive me of that which will not enrich Mr. Browne nor help his cause. Whoever circulates such a rumor is a public enemy, a serpent that only needs to be detected to be charge of the Danville Pharmacy during Dr. J. M. Benson's vacation.

THE STORY OF THE MEETING

It is true that Mr. Browne and id meet in the office of the Virginia Baptist in December, but purely on a usiness matter. Our personal unifernces were entirely out of the ques tion so far as I knew. He came to was one of the Company and since was one of the Company I distened to his statement. But to my surprise Mr. W. P, Burrell a member of th company arose and said, "I am glad of the occasion that brings Revs. Z. D Lewis and W. W. Browne together to-night. I have longed to see them meet. They are two men for whom 1 have the highest regard. I would like to hear them express themselves.

Browne stating our points of differ-ence, surveying in detail the ground of our conflict, and if it was any acknowledgement made it was made on the part of Mr. Browne, for he did not hesitate to condemn Mr. Smyth and Graham's course in begining the fight.

He showed a willingness to correct any wrong that he had done anybody and desired to drop the whole difficuly. When Mr Browne left the meeting he shook hands with all the gentle men present. This is all the hand shaking that was done. Let me say that Mr. Browne has committed no pardonable sin against me or Rev. Payne or the Baptist Ministry and he desires to settle the matter, it must be done publicly in the presence of the people in the spirit of true maybood. I am content and trusting in my cause.
